Transfield Services secures A$157 million in new contracts

Transfield Services today announced it has secured a combined A$157 million in contracts in its business across Australia and New Zealand. These include:

- ▶ A three year contract with SP Ausnet to deliver a scheduled program of works in the central and eastern regions of Victoria. The combined works consist of power distribution grid component replacements and bushfire mitigation.
- ▶ Transfield Worley, a 50/50 joint venture between Transfield Services and WorleyParsons, has been awarded an 18-month NZ$76 million contract for project management, engineering, procurement and construction of the MET2 Gas Plant Project for Todd Energy's Mangahewa Gas Plant in Taranaki on the west coast of New Zealand's north island. Todd Energy is a leading New Zealand oil and gas explorer and is a long-term client of Transfield Worley.
- ▶ Transfield Worley Power Services, a 50/50 joint venture between Transfield Services and WorleyParsons, has secured a seven year contract to operate and maintain BHP Billiton's new 190MW combined cycle Yarnima power station near Newman in the Pilbara, Western Australia. More information on the contract is available here.
- ▶ Transfield Services subsidiary Easternwell has secured a new $30 million contract with Santos for the supply of heavy work over services in the Cooper Basin. The two-year contract commences late 2013 and includes two one year extension options. More information on the contract is available here.

"These contracts demonstrate the diversity and strength of our operations," said Transfield Services Managing Director and CEO, Graeme Hunt. "We will continue to build on our strategy to deliver growth across non-discretionary client spend across our business."

The newly announced work demonstrates the Company's continued ability to sustain long-term contracts with blue chip public sector and private clients.
